He Holds a Free Hand.

HELEN, October 12.—The Tagblatt says: A short speech made by the Czar at a banquet at Schloss last evening shows that he is determined to preserve a free hand. The Vossische Zeitung says: "Everything indicates that the Czar's visit to the Emperor is purely a personal matter, and is essentially independent of political affairs."

Harrison the "boy preacher," is worth $60,000. What a fortune he will have when he gets to be a man.

P. C. McIntire, one of the proprietors of the Western Dressed Beef and Poultry purchased forty seven fine fat, corn fed Tennessee Hogs yesterday for $100,000.

FINEST FARM IN NORTH CAROLINA

FOR SALE!

The Lowndes Place,

In Transylvania County.

One of the finest and best located farms in Western N. C., 5 miles from the thriving town of Burnsville, the county seat of this Transylvania county. The buildings are all in good repair, consisting of a large two-story dwelling house, with 13 rooms, carriage house, ice house, and, in fact, all necessary outbuildings. Storage room for 250 tons of hay and a building for 100 head of cattle. A very substantial and convenient milk stable, with accommodation for 10 milks.

This farm contains 830 acres, of which 200 acres are bottom land lying on the French Broad river, and in a very high state of cultivation. 110 acres of this is well set in mowens—very top rich grass. Of the remaining 530 acres, 100 acres are in upland pasture land; set with a mixture of grasses. Plenty of handsome oaks for shade in pasture land. Bright running streams of pure water everywhere. The remainder is in corn, and all the different varieties of timber—oak, chestnut, oak, poplar, etc. Convenient to good schools, churches and postoffice. Full mail. Fifteen miles from Hendersonville and 25 miles from Asheville, and in or very near the line of the contemplated Atlantic, Asheville and Baltimore railroad.

No such farm for its size can be found in this State or any other State, for value, beauty and desirability every way.

For price and particulars apply to or address:
